

THE WREN'S NEST

Museum | Cultural Center | National Historic Landmark

The historic home of author
Joel Chandler Harris, located in Atlanta's West End.

Atlanta's oldest house museum is open on Saturdays for docent-led tours and tales performed by a professional storyteller.

www.wrensnest.org

About the Tour

By exploring each room of the historic home of a noteworthy American writer, tour takers will learn about the life of Joel Chandler Harris, the significance of the Brer Rabbit folktales in American literature, and trends in Atlanta history encapsulated by the city's oldest house museum.

About the Storytelling

For decades, The Wren's Nest has presented a weekly storytelling hour on Saturdays, allowing visitors to hear classic and modern folktales in the spirit of their original form. Through the talents of our professional storytellers, we share stories that have entertained, inspired, and taught so many (including Joel Chandler Harris) for centuries.

Hours of Operation and Location

Saturdays, 11AM-3PM + By Appointment
Contact: (404) 753-7735

1050 Ralph David Abernathy Blvd SW
Atlanta, GA 30310

