2 If you are looking for a quick ride, we have your ticket! Our Two-Hour Express takes passengers on a relaxing ride through North Georgia without a layover.

Trip Details

Personalize your four-hour journey with a choice of vintage, climate-controlled or open-air rail cars for your 26-mile trip along the Toccoa River. Riders will join the countless generations who have experienced the lush Appalachian foothills and farmlands in a way only possible aboard the Blue Ridge Scenic Railway.

During a two-hour layover, you'll have time to visit the small southern sister towns of McCaysville, Georgia and Copperhill, Tennessee. Located on each state's line, also known as "The Blue Line," guests have the unique opportunity to have a foot in Georgia and Tennessee at the same time. While in the towns, we also recommend that you visit Toccoa-Ocoee Street. On this street, guests can explore delightful eateries, antique and specialty shops, and art galleries before boarding the train for the hour-long return.
