

Southern Hospitality

This beautiful historic home was built in 1895 by the late Dr. James Bradley.

Doris and Larry Greenhaw, proprietors, have restored it to its Victorian charm and have named it Adair Manor. Crystal chandeliers gracefully hang from 12 foot ceilings in spacious rooms adorned with period antiques and artistry, fine china, silver and crystal; all creating an ambiance of elegance. The gracious hospitality of Doris and Larry will ensure each guest of Adair Manor a memorable stay.

Doris and Larry Greenhaw

The Adair Manor is located approximately 1.6 miles west of I-75 and .6 miles south of Highway 140.

Adairsville is located half-way between Chattanooga, Tennessee and Atlanta, Georgia.

Visit Nearby Attractions

♦ Adairsville

1902 Stock Exchange and Maggie Mae's Tea Room Café

Adairsville Historic Rail Museum and Visitor Center

Famous for the Great Locomotive Chase
Barnsley Gardens Resort

Offers golf, sporting clays, fly fishing health spa, fine cuisine and the romantic ruins and gardens

♦ Georgia's Native American Culture

Etowah Indian Mounds

Chief Vann House

Showplace of the Cherokee Nation

♦ Museums

Tellus Science Museum

Associated with the Smithsonian

Booth Western Art Museum

Only museum of its kind in the Southeastern United States.

The Adair Manor

*110 Church Street
Adairsville, GA 30103*

Phone: 770-769-9585

678-910-1386

E-mail: largreenhaw@yahoo.com

Facebook @ Adair Manor

www.adairmanor.com

The Adair Manor

1895

Bed and Breakfast

In beautiful Victorian Adairsville, Georgia

Your Hosts:

Doris and Larry Greenhaw

Welcome to Our Home

The spectacularly furnished Victorian Parlor, accoutered with a Grand Piano, welcomes guests to relax and enjoy the moment.

Our Rooms

Elegantly decorated guest rooms, each having a distinctive character of its own, are furnished with period interiors, custom draperies and bedspreads, oriental rugs, and luxurious beds appointed with fine linens. To ensure a restful night, each room has individual climate control.

The Magnolia Room boasts beautiful stained glass windows and access to a private side porch.

The Mimosa Room charms its guests with an outstanding Teester Bed.

Our Victorian style private baths are equipped with modern conveniences and each bath is graciously adorned with monogrammed towels.

Breakfast

When you awake from a restful nights' sleep, Doris and Larry will graciously extend an invitation to savor their inspired, delectable breakfast served in the Grand Dining Room.

