Sample Itinerary

Historical Hotbed ~ Experience history first-hand as you walk in the footsteps of Civil War soldiers and Cherokee Indians.

Morning:

New Echota Cherokee Capital State Historic Site

1211 Chatsworth Highway, Calhoun • (706) 624-1321 • gastateparks.org/newechota

Known as the last capital of the Cherokee Indian Nation, New Echota was one of the first experiments in tribal self-governance and the site of the first Indian-language newspaper. Groups can tour restored and reconstructed buildings, including the Council House, court-house, print shop, Samuel Worcester's house, and several other structures, many of which have re-created interiors. Interpretive exhibits and a 17-minute film are available in the visitors center. Native American arts, crafts, and music are available for purchase in the gift shop. Admission: $5.50 - $7.50

Oakleigh ~ Gordon County Historical Society

335 South Wall Street, Calhoun • (706) 629-1515 • exploreghordoncounty.com

The Gordon County Historical Society is housed in an antebellum home where it is rumored Union Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman made his headquarters. Tours are available by appointment with local historian/character Jim Lay. Free admission.

*A possible location for a catered lunch.

Roland Hayes Museum

212 South Wall Street, Calhoun • (706) 629-2599 • harrisartscenter.com

The Roland Hayes Museum, located inside the Harris Arts Center, is a tribute to this native son, the child of former slaves, who became the first African-American vocalist to achieve international acclaim. Museum highlights include a Gildemeester & Kroeger piano, records, autographed programs, personal letters and music scores. Free admission. *A possible location for a catered lunch.

Lunch in Downtown Calhoun ~ may also have time for shopping

Afternoon:

Resaca Battlefield Historic Site

183 Resaca Lafayette Road, Resaca • (706) 625-3200 • exploreghordoncounty.com

Walk the trails (featuring interpretive signage) on hallowed ground where much of the heaviest fighting occurred May 14 & 15, 1864 at the start of Sherman's "Atlanta Campaign."

Free admission. *A pavilion with picnic tables & restrooms are available.

Fort Wayne

117 Taylor Ridge Road, Resaca • (706) 625-3200 • exploreghordoncounty.com

Fort Wayne features two well-preserved fortified areas used by Confederate and Union forces during the Civil War. Visitors can walk the one mile trail to view the original parade grounds and entrenchments. These entrenchments are the last known constructed by the Georgia Militia. Free admission.

Resaca Confederate Cemetery

Confederate Cemetery Road, Resaca • (706) 625-3200 • exploreghordoncounty.com

The oldest Confederate military burial ground in the state. After the Battle of Resaca, Mary Green, a local resident, decided to transfer the bodies of hastily buried Confederate soldiers from their shallow graves to the site of the Resaca Confederate Cemetery. More than 440 soldiers are buried here. Groups can stop at the nearby Atlanta Campaign Pavilion for a description of the battle. Free admission.

Dinner at Bowman's Restaurant in Resaca followed by entertainment
