A scenic view of a golf course. In the foreground, a green golf cart is parked on a paved path. A man in a blue shirt and khaki pants is standing next to the cart, and another man in a red shirt and khaki pants is sitting in the driver's seat. In the background, a lush green golf course is visible, with a body of water and a line of trees in the distance. A golfer in a blue shirt and khaki pants is seen on a green in the middle ground.

Plantation Course

Designed by noted architect Bob Cupp with U.S. Open Champions Fuzzy Zoeller and Hubert Green, the Plantation Course is characterized by a natural, rolling layout with innumerable subtleties.

National Course

Nestled in dense forests of hardwoods, pines, and dogwoods, this Tom Fazio-designed course boasts 27-holes, impressive elevations, wonderful views, and several holes skirting Lake Oconee.

Great Waters Course

Opened in 1992, this Jack Nicklaus designed course features nine holes running along Lake Oconee's shores. It has been voted one of the "Top 10 Nicklaus Courses You Can Play" by Golf Magazine.

The Landing Course

A design masterpiece of Bob Cupp, The Landing (formerly Port Armor) was the first golf course built on Lake Oconee, setting the stage for a prime golf destination. It features a variety of holes that wind through naturally wooded areas and rolling hills.

Oconee Course

This Rees Jones-designed course uses the combination of beautiful terrain and an excellent routing plan to create an abundance of exciting golf- from breathtaking downhill tee shots to par-threes with up to 50-foot drops.

Spinks-Kanitra House

201 West Greene Street - Top Left

The earliest record of the house is a deed recorded in 1846. Sometime before 1900, when the property was acquired by the Mary Leila Cotton Mill, other rooms were added. Laura and Paul Kanitra purchased the home in 2007, and the couple has opened The Potted Geranium Tea Parlor and Gifts.

The Old Gaol

East Greene Street - Top Right

This granite structure has two foot thick walls, two stories and a trap door above the entry. Condemned prisoners were hung above the trap door and dropped to their death. The building has remains virtually unchanged with its castellated roof-line and sloping stone walls since its completion in 1807.

The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer

303 North Main Street - Bottom Left

The current church building was completed in 1868. The design of the church is Carpenter Gothic, featuring the unusual curved roof and intricate beam-work of that style. The window behind the altar is mullioned handmade stained glass.

Happy Times

208 West Broad Street - Bottom Right

The original portion of the house was built about 1824. In 1854 when the Greensboro Female College was built, this home became a college dormitory. It is said that the renowned author of Little Women, Louisa Mae Alcott, taught at the school.
