WINE TASTINGS

Dahlonega's First Family Farm Winery

Lumpkin County's Founding Vineyard

Laid back and fun, Three Sisters Vineyards is a favorite destination for Wine Lovers visiting the North Georgia Mountains in Dahlonega, Lumpkin County, The Heart of Georgia Wine Country.

A variety of fine wine tastings are offered inside from the cherry wood bar featuring a distinctive collection of southern folk art and pottery. Outside, a rock wall patio is said by many to be one of the best places to stop and soak in this unique wine region's beauty. Relax with friends and a glass of 100% Georgia Grown wine while listening to local acoustic folk and bluegrass presented on the Crush Pad Deck. Three Sisters Vineyards is proud to be Dahlonega's First Family Farm Winery and Lumpkin County's founding wine grape growers. 184 ares of North Georgia Mountain vineyard beauty and history awaits you at the only place TurnerSouth named Best Winery In The South, Three Sisters Vineyards.
