

The Mission of the City of Winder's Cultural Arts Center is to make a positive difference in the quality of life within our city, county and region by providing affordable access to a total range of arts, to allow all citizens the opportunity to experience and enjoy all facets of the visual, literary and performing arts, and to facilitate growth of the arts through performances, festivals, shows, workshops and education.

For more information about the Winder Cultural Arts Center,
Contact
Don Wildsmith,
Cultural Arts Director, at 678-425-6884 or e-mail him at don.wildsmith@cityofwinder.com.

WINDER:
"City of Opportunity"

Winder Cultural Arts Center
105 East Athens Street
P. O. Box 566
Winder, GA 30680

The Winder Cultural Arts Center

105 East Athens Street

P. O. Box 566

Winder, GA 30680

Phone: 678•425•6884

Fax: 770•307•0424

www.winderculturalarts.com

Strategically located at the intersection of East Athens Street and Park Avenue, just blocks from the downtown business district, the Winder Cultural Arts Center is a spacious and up-to-date conference, training and entertainment facility.

Designed with easy access and the needs of the patron in mind, the Winder Cultural Arts Center is home to the Colleen O. Williams Theater, a fully equipped performance theater with a large stage, comfortable seating for 225, and state-of-the-art lighting, sound & video capabilities.

Additional spaces include a large Dining Room with attached caterer's kitchen & a well-lit and adaptable classroom - large enough for departmental training sessions, yet small enough for our intimate ballroom dance lessons.

Whether your business, club or family needs space for ten to two-hundred, please consider the Winder Cultural Arts Center.

CONVENIENT, COMMITTED, CAPABLE.

Keep track of upcoming events at the Winder Cultural Arts Center by logging onto www.winderculturalarts.com.

The Colleen O. Williams Theater, 225 seats and state-of-the-art light, sound & video capabilities

The Classroom, seating for 70 & home to various student participation classes

The Dining Room, with ample seating for up to 80 and an attached caterer's kitchen

Home of the Colleen O. Williams Theater

Named after Winder's first Speech & Drama teacher, the Colleen O. Williams Theater is Winder's premier performance space.

Centered around a spacious, well lit stage, with ample wing and backstage space, there is truly not a bad seat in the house.

This unique proscenium theater is the perfect venue for your next business meeting, wedding, political debate, or symphony concert.

Come visit "The Colleen" today and see why we say -

"It's not just a theater - it's a night on the town!"

