"Happy Birthday Mr. Miller" Celebrating artist R.A. Miller in honor of his 100th birthday.
Until his death in 2006 at the age of 93, Georgia artist R.A. Miller lived his entire life on the same land where he was born in 1912. He wasw a farmer, cotton mill worker, and an ordained minister in the Free Will Baptist Church. After being stricken by glaucoma in his early sixties, he retired and began to create artwork to spread his spiritual message. His whimsical and colorful tin cutouts are enormously popular and have been widely exhibited.

Around Round Back at Rocky's Place Satellite Show: Featuring artwork from the ultimate Folk Art Gallery in the South. Around Back at Rocky's Place was established in 2002 and is the ultimate folk art gallery in the South, continually adding new art, artists, shows, exhibits, and educational opportunities to enrich the community and promoting Southern culture and regional heritage.

We would like to thank Hudgens Family Foundation Publix Supermarkets Charities, Cargil Community Cares, Jackson EMC Foundation funded by the members of Jackson EMC through the Operation Round Up program, for their continued support of visual arts programs for children. Funding directly supports the cost of supplies, scholarships as well as the expanded outreach into the community regarding Summer Art Camp programming for children.

Also, we would like to thank The Collegiate Grill, Deep South Dogs and Mellow Mushroom for providing deliciousness on our Hot Dog and Pizza Fridays.

Camp sessions still available! One week sessions running now until July 27th. Camp is $100 for members and $125 for non-members. For more information please visit our website qvac.org or call 770-536-2575.
