YOUR PLACE for relaxation

In Blue Ridge, Georgia, a mountain escape is always in season. Spring brings sunny days and meadows full of wildflowers, while summer is the time for lazing in a cabin rental on Lake Blue Ridge, or floating down the cool mountain waters of the Toccoa River. Fall sets the mountains ablaze with color and the sweet smells of the harvest, and, of course, winter is the quiet time here; perfect for snuggling up by the fire, or celebrating special times with family and friends.
